THE CITY yesterday was comparatively quiet; there was but one prisoner in the look-up last evening, and he was resting in peaceful slumber, uncon-scious of the fine which was awaiting him on the coming morrow.

BEFORE ESQUIRE JOHNSTON .- A young man, some seventeen years of before Esquire Johnston yesterday morning for petit larceny. He was acused of having stolen from a store in Center Wheeling a pocket book con-taining some five or six dollars in money, on Tuesday last. The probab-lities are that Shay was intoxicated at be suited. the time of the theft. His bond was fixed at $100 by the insgistrate, and he was committed to fail until he should furnish the required security.

MARRIES .- In the more retired streets and alleys about town, we notice ; number of the boys deeply absorbed in the mysteries of "clearances," "knuckle down," "taw," and the terms and titles of the game of marbles. We fear that they were "gamboling" but we have nowhere stopped to make inquiries-Why they choose the damp, raw days of November for the game, we are really unable to say. It is one of the unac untable things of the boys' games, that they are perfectly independent of 120 Main street. changes of season or place, and govern-ed by rules which are as arbitrary and inexplicable as those which regulate English spelling,

Base Ball.—The game played on the Island yesterdsy afternoon had a termination rather unusual for our friends of the blue and white uniform. The score at the close of the seventh inning (when the game was called) stood Osceola 89, Baltic 26. The Baltics claim that only five of their first nine ing absent among the rest. We were not a little surprised to find such mettle in a club comparatively unknown; and the champions must see to it that they do not get hold of a tartar in the Osceola club.

RIVER NEWS.-The river here last evening was rising a very little, with nine feet and three inches in the channel. Weather raw and chilly, with a tendency toward snow in the after

The tow-boat Tiger, with barges, coming down, collided with the J. N. McCullough, going up, ment of Boots and Shoes for the one mile above Madison, at ten o'clock at night. Seven barges of coal were also sunk. The McCallongh left Louisville at 4 P. M. on Tuesday, with 500 sacks of wheat, and 10 hhds. of tobacco, for Pittsburgb. She had a full cargo engaged, but disagreed with the shippers about rates and went off without it. The McCullough was one year off and cost $60,000, and was valued at $52,000. She was insured at Pittsburgh for $85,000-$5,000 each in seven different companies, at 6 per cent. The Cincinnati companies had refused to take risks on her for less than 9 per
